2009-2010 BUDGET HEARING

Mrs. Hermes reported that the budget has been on public display the last thirty (30) days as required by school code. Tonight's Public Hearing date and time have been advertised. No questions were received while the budget was on public display.

Overall, revenues and expenditures continue to reflect a balanced budget as a result of some of the reductions in 2008-09 and anticipated reductions for 2009-10. Mrs. Hermes noted that during these difficult economic times, the District philosophy remains the same. Teaching and learning remain the District's main focus and top priority. The highest quality of education for District 67 students has never waived.

The 2009-10 Budget is based on financial information known today. However, there are some large variables which may dictate the need to amend the budget at a later date.
